The many unanswered questions and silent inquiries; is at the heart of this work. I remembered the sleepless nights I had as a student of an Assembly of God Bible school where I spent 3 years. It was really difficult trying to understand the absence of the black presence in the Bible. I could not go on living as a person without taking time out from my busy schedule to contribute to this ever growing conversation. The world has never witnessed such an enormous and full scale deception like the one the group of Europeans called Jews; were able to perpetrate. They were able to make effective use of the media because most of these businesses are owned by them. They were very effective in getting the whole world to think that they are the descendants of The Ancient Israelites. The...
