

Learning to Die in the Anthropocene: Reflections on the End of Civilization

By Roy Scranton

City Lights Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 178 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In Learning to Die in the Anthropocene, Roy Scranton draws on his experiences in Iraq to confront the grim realities of climate change. The result is a fierce and provocative book. -- Elizabeth Kolbert, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of The Sixth Extinction: An Unnatural History Roy Scranton s Learning to Die in the Anthropocene presents, without extraneous bullshit, what we must do to survive on Earth. It s a powerful, useful, and ultimately hopeful book that more than any other I ve read has the ability to change people s minds and create change. For me, it crystallizes and expresses what I ve been thinking about and trying to get a grasp on. The economical way it does so, with such clarity, sets the book apart from most others on the subject. --Jeff VanderMeer, author of the Southern Reach trilogy Roy Scranton lucidly articulates the depth of the climate crisis with an honesty that is all too rare, then calls for a reimagined humanism that will help us meet our stormy future with as much decency as we can muster. While I...
