Makepeace Thackeray Besides the living composers, nearly all the great masters are represented by selections made by the editor The collection as a whole expresses every mood of life, and it is the opinion of such educators as have seen the work, that the Laurel Song Book opens, for the first time, the world of musical art to the schools of America. It fully represents, for the first time, the music of the modern composers. It gives the best of the folk music. It gives the best works of the standard writers compatible with practicability and the limitations of young singers. It gives, for the first time, the most beautiful lyrics in English and American literature, from Chaucer to Walt Whitman,...
