Excerpt: . been a member of Lima Masonic Lodge No. 205, F. A. M. Politically he is identified with the Republican party. Visitors at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Breese find them delightful entertainers. They both can recall so many interesting events of a half century ago, when life was a little harder in Allen County than it is to-day, and the listener carries away knowledge that he could scarcely have obtained from other sources. Among other interesting reminiscences, they tell of the days when a cook-stove was enough of a curiosity in their locality to attract visitors from miles away. As corn meal was a staple food and mills were far distant, it was the custom to grate corn on a tin grater which, in all probability, had been made at home. No road commissioners had yet looked after the public highways...
