Was the infrastruc-ture there or did it - I guess it developed as you made the money available for it. EAN Governor D. Let me answer that in a couple of ways. The infrastructure was not there, although the advocacy groups were, and as money became available, these services became avail-able. This is not, you know, a perfect world. It is wonderful for me to come to Washington and tell my story. We fight every day with people who want more of this and less of that, and that is just part of the political fabric of what happens when you make changes and what happens when you fight over resources. So I am not going to say that everybody is 100 percent satisfied customers. We have dis-agreements with people...
