Excerpt: .wall was made, The first foundation too: Sapphire was the second grade, A polish d stone of blue. The Chrysopsul next I sing, The Jacinth riow doth coihe, Theviolet A methyst will bring And this makes up the sum. The twelve gates.all of pearl were madi The streets were pav d with gold, No temple there to cast a shade With massy doors to fold. For God himself the temple iii And there s no sun or moon, For Godfthe Lamb, the light doth give, More glorious than the sun. And there the righteous dwell in peace And walk the streets of gold, All sorrow there and aflguish oeaseq. Their bliss can ne er be told. Then let me seek this city fair High in the world s above. And shine more brilliant than 2 star Wherexall iipeace and lovg. STORM IN SUMMER. When...
