Pegasus Elliot MacKenzie Publishers, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Have you ever wanted to visit Luxor or Cairo but, with Egyptian tourism in freefall and the country walking a tightrope between autocracy and democracy, who - first time traveller or returning visitor - wouldn't want a little guidance? Nile holidays are becoming popular again and, whether travelling solo or in a package tour, this is the book for you. There are maps, tables and the information your guides neglect. There's also the history they leave out; everything needed to make visiting this stunning but complex country as memorable as it can and should be. There's advice on keeping safe, bargaining, tipping and surviving local hucksters and once bustling markets. From felucca sailing to baksheesh and touring by taxi, it's all covered. History, pyramids, scams, caleches, camel rides and simply saying No! .everything's here in this insightful guide.
