Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Abraham and Obama is the revelation of the birth and contribution of monotheism, which is the belief in one Supreme God. Since the beginning of civilization, humanity imagined and then relied on the existence of Divine Beings that would enrich their lives and solve most of their problems. Throughout history, aside from food and shelter, human beings have spent more of their time and money on religious observances, artifacts and structures than on any otherworldly concern. Today the majority of people on Earth are monotheists. The major monotheistic religions are Judaism, Christianity and Islam. These faiths have chosen Abraham as their first patriarch. In order to comprehend and familiarize oneself with the significance of Abraham s revelation, the author conceived a visionary meeting with Abraham when this unique religious concept was first revealed. It also was at a time in history when humanity was universally polytheistic. In order to obtain this information and give it a high sense of authenticity, the author had to create a visionary encounter with the Patriarch Abraham, who lived about 3800 years ago and have a noted individual take his deposition. The author vicariously chose President Obama, who accepted this opportunity under interesting and possibly dangerous circumstances. Abraham believed that religion must be logical, rational, beneficial and within the grasp and choice of every individual. He believed that salvation comes from within and that heaven and one s afterlife are here on Earth. However, Abraham points out that what is more important than a belief in a single ethical deity is one s behavior toward oneself and others. His conception of monotheism is that conduct supersedes creed and one s...
