Was I an Irishman oh that day that I boldly withstood our pride? or on the day that I hung down my head, and wept in shame and silence over the humiliation of Great Britain? I became unpopular in England for the one, and in Ireland for the other. What then? What obligation lay on me to be popular I was bound to serve both kingdoms. To be pleased with my service was their affair, not mine. I was an Irishman in the Irish business, just as much as I was an American, when, on the same principles, I wished you to concede to America at a time...
