Summary: A modern Odyssey of awakening, Jonathan Talat Phillips's journey into Gnosticism deeply resonates with the eccentric moment. The Electric Jesus, a spiritual autobiography, reveals a life lived in the light of transformation, searching for the mystic core of a planetary civilization. -Alex Grey, co-founder of the Chapel of Sacred Mirrors, author of The Mission of Art "A fresh, vigorous, and often startling account of a man's introduction to higher planes of reality. If you've ever wondered what the new consciousness movement is about, read this book and find out." -Richard Smoley, author of Inner Christianity and The Dice Game of Shiva: How Consciousness Creates the Universe Entertaining, celebratory, burning, reflective, and electric-but definitely not for the faint of heart or hard of head. With tales of sex, drugs, elves and Jesus, this memoir romps through the hinterlands of body and soul. -Sharon Gannon, co-founder of Jivamukti Yoga and co-author of The Art of Yoga . "Every cultural scene needs good personal narratives. Jonathan Talat Phillips' Electric Jesus raises a proud flag for the post-modern Burning Man and techno psychonautic era. However, Phillips...
