Excerpt: . . . five years, he was elected a member of the state assembly from the county of Wyoming for 1888 and 1889. While in the assembly he served as a member of the important judiciary committee. Representing Wyoming county, the center of the western New York salt fields, he started a movement that resulted in the amendment of the constitution of the state, providing for the sale of the state salt reservation at Syracuse, and thus removing the state as a competitor against the private capital employed in the salt industry in western New York. The strong fight made by Mr. Van Gorder on this question made him a prominent figure in what was then the 30th senatorial district, composed of Livingston, Niagara, Genesee, and Wyoming counties. In the fall of 1889 he was elected state senator with but little opposition, and was re-elected two years...
