Not illustrated. 1910 Excerpt: .Court of Illinois are undertaking an investigation of the alleged charge that hundreds of young men who were deficient in the required educational qualification have bought their high school certificates. Young men without this certificate are not admitted to the law and medical schools of Illinois. The charge implicates several high school principals who, it is claimed, fraudulently issued certificates of graduation for money considerations.--The late figures indicate that the total enrollment of the N. E. A. for the year will reach approximately 18,000. This is slightly more than half of the final record of enrollment for the Boston Convention in 1903, which numbered 34,983. This record will make the Boston Convention of July last the third convention in size in the history of the Association, being exceeded only by the Boston Convention in 1903 and the Asbury Park Convention in 1905.--Boston is one of the...
