Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Christianity and Hindooism: An Address In accepting the invitation of your pastor to address you upon the subject of our missionary work in India, I feel myself in some sort discharging a personal obligation. One of the chief discouragements in that work for the last few years has been the want of funds, due to financial difficulties in this country; embarrassing our Board in all its operations, rendering serious retrenchment necessary, and sometimes threatening to cripple our missions. Missionaries on the ground feel this most keenly. An order for retrenchment passed in the rooms of the Board of Missions seems to the members of the Board a safe financial policy, and to many good men at home the only wise and prudent course. It may be so. But it looks differently to the men from whom the money is withheld, whose chosen enterprises must be curtailed or abandoned, whose wise plans for the future must be postponed perhaps indefinitely, who must often lose even the fruits of past success because they may not push forward to secure them. In such circumstances, the reports of great efforts made by this church to relieve the funds of our Board, and the munificent gifts of individual members of the congregation in times of special difficulty, have endeared your church and its honored pastor as by a tie of personal gratitude to many a missionary and in many a mission station. We have felt that our necessities were remembered here, that here sympathy was taking its most practical form in that help which was so much needed, without which our hearts would have been still more saddened and our...
