In fact, Edmondstone came oftener than ever. His anxiety and unhappiness grew upon him and made him moody, irritable, and morbid. One night, when M. Villefort had left them alone together for a short time, he sprang from his chair and came to her couch, shaken with suppressed emotion. That man is killing you! he exclaimed. You are dying by inches! I cannot bear it! It is not he who is killing me, she answered; and then M. Villefort returned to the room with the book he had been in search of. In this case Edmondstone s passion took new phases. He wrote no sonnets, painted no pictures. He neglected his work, and spent his idle hours in rambling here...
