There has been some little informal discussion here as to giving the opposition an opportunity to be heard, and I wish to say in that connection that so far as I am concerned, and the other friends of the measure as well, we shall be only too glad that all the time possible may be given for everybody to be heard on this proposition. There is no disposition to shut off the hearings, so far as the friends of the measure are concerned. As author of H. R. 17824, I desire to submit to this committee a brief statement preliminary to the hearing of those who will treat the subject more or less from a technical standpoint. The measure is framed strictly along the lines of the pure-food law; its execution would be by the same officials, and it would operate in practically the same...
