Excerpt: .the philosopher, have more than enough. Following the maxims of my upbringing, I have for the last fourteen years hired a house in London for the months of February, March, and April. Honestly as I detest house-hunting, I ve steadily refused to complicate my life with a permanent possession. The house in the quiet region where I could be of the world yet not in it, was no longer available; I discovered that the dwellings of my friends--to be let--did not justify my friends recommendations; I think, then, it was on January 9th that I looked up a well-known house agent. The junior partner of Hay 8: Horner was away on a holiday in Spain, but the clerk in charge, appraising me--I gathered this from his manner--as somewhat exact ing, produced an enormous tome, and prepared due consideration for the range of Madame s luniform...
