

The Naked Eye New Directions Paperbook

By Yoko Tawada

New Directions. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 256 pages. Dimensions: 6.7in. x 4.9in. x 0.7in. Tawada's slender accounts of alienation achieve a remarkable potency. Michael Porter, The New York Times A precocious Vietnamese high school student known as the pupil with the iron blouse in Ho Chi Minh City is invited to an International Youth Conference in East Berlin. But, in East Berlin, as she is preparing to present her paper in Russian on Vietnam as a Victim of American Imperialism, she is abruptly kidnapped and taken to a small town in West Germany. After a strange spell of domestic-sexual boredom with her lover-abductor and though the Berlin Wall was said to be more difficult to break through than the Great Wall of China she escapes on a train to Moscow . . . but mistakenly arrives in Paris. Alone, broke, and in a completely foreign land, Anh (her false name) loses herself in the films of Catherine Deneuve as her real adventures begin. Dreamy, meditative, and filled with the gritty everyday perils of a person living somewhere without papers (at one point Anh is subjected to some vampire-like skin experiments), The Naked Eye is a novel that is as surprising as it is...
