Excerpt: . wretched apostate from, Christianity. He knew that if the church could be rilled with an ignorant ministry, religion would be exposed to general cootempt. Beside the general arguments for a learned ministry, there are those which apply peculiarly to the present pc rioid. On this topic, 1 can throw out hints only, for the time will admit no more. There is an extensive and increasing diffusion of knowledge in the community And the knowledge of the clergy must keep pace with it. It will be impossible, otherwise, to secure general attention and respect, either to their persons, their office, or the religion they preach. The other professions are filled with able and efficient men. The community perceive and feel it. Have they not a right to expect a correspondent ability in their religious guides? If the expectation be disappointed, must not the effects...
