Not illustrated. 1855 Excerpt: .of Medicine, President of the Hull Literary and Philosophical Society, 8.c. fyc. To the Right Hon. the Lord Provost, the Magistrates, and the Town Council of Edinburgh. Hull, August 20, 1855. Gentlemen, I am requested by Dr. Laycock, of York, to state to you what I believe to be his qualifications for the office of Professor of Physic in the University of Edinburgh. Dr. Laycock s name is so well known to the Medical Profession not only in this Country, but in Europe and America, as connected with the highest branches of research in Medical Science, that I should feel it presumptuous in me to offer an opinion, did I not sincerely believe that in offering my testimony on this occasion, I am advancing the cause of Science and the important public interests connected therewith. Dr. Laycock s researches, which are both profound and original, have not been confined to the more purely philosophical branches of Medicine; he has placed the Medical Profession under great obligations by his practical writings and the assistance he has rendered in the treatment of obscure and difficult classes of cases. I do not know in what way the Town Council of Edinburgh could discharge this important trust with more advantage to the Public and the University, and more credit to themselves, than by the appointment of Dr. Laycock to the vacant professorship. I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your obedient Servant, HENRY COOPER, Knt., M. D., London. From William...
